Immortal Egypt – Secrets of the Eye Fall Recital

Immortal Egypt – Secrets of the Eye had a lot of new and exciting features, such as a new sound system, stage lighting, better communication between the lighting coordinator and our staff, but the backdrops were a fantastic addition to an already wonderful show. The instructors started off the recital with a show stopping dance including Isis Wings, Veils and Swords. Then there were kids, seniors, solos, duets and group dances, even a 5-month pregnant dancer. Each dance was a delight to watch, and each memorized the audience in its own way.

Pictures and Videos of this recital are also available at Zahra's
